

CHARITIES, PHILANTHROPISTS, POLICY ENTREPRENEURS, INTERNATIONAL COMPANIES AND STATE SCHOOLING IN AOTEAROA NEW ZEALAND

Principals' Federation Ngā Tumuaki o Aotearoa

Massey University Te Kunenga Ki Pūrehuroa, Manawatū

Acknowledgements

etworks

Networks

social network

Acknowledgements

ation Ngā Tumuaki o

feedback throughout the project.

Connor Duffy undertook the main web and lite network analyses. Dr Sarojinie Fernando undertook the statistical analysis of the ourke assisted with case organis lie Sakai formatted the List of Tables and Figures

ā

Pearson social network of persons social network of pe social network of persons social network of network of persons

social network of

COMET social network of persons

COMET social network of persons

Kidscan social network of persons

Kidscan social network of

Summary

sketch map

es remain largely unremarked in the media and their consequential effects not like New Zealand

heir entry into the managed marketplace of New Zealand takes two main forms: making schools run more like ūnanga and Urban Māori Authorities take place in

Zealand, lie networks of actors, organisations and classic market

etworks

sometimes known as ‘network governance’.

Examples of the newer network governance approach to seek to win government contracts

Phrases like inequalities of provision. The peak body Philanthropy New Zealand to make significant additional charitable donations from operating surpluses.

Aotearoa, iwi, rūnan undertake increases in the number of schools in the state schooling network governance, thanks in no small part to historic Treaty of Waitangi settlements, which are d ranks thir undertaken

public, 6% family and whānau, and 2.1% older people. The most frequently reported

, and a quarter through a combination of bequests, donations and koha.

of 2014 gross income, expenditure and total assets was undertaken and Polytechnics, Private Training Establishments, professional and peak body trusts, and four kindergarten associations.

Schooling policy networks come into being and flourish due to the collaborate and network in order to 1990s has been Professor John Hattie, formerly at the University of Auckland. now global social networking original scholarly work in the u packaged, branded and monetised th Visible Learning book programme of teacher workshops

New Zealand examples of policy networks include the libertarian think tank, Ako Mātātupu

that aims to contribute to the public good by bringing a pro market perspective to Auckla ed, boutique are University of Auckland, the Ministry of Education and Teach for All. Teach fo their social networks. The cases are: Pearson, the wor ghout Auckland and Trust Auckland (COMET), which operates a project development services throughout the Auckland Council area; and Kidscan, the material needs of children affected by poverty, and which has grown its equity

(based in Auckland) significant share of the national school testing market access to high quality school knowledge and skills; and linking education to professional career language of making education more accessible and affordable, and applying use of data analytics to make judgments about the performance of state and national d subsidiary now known as series of sixteen workshops for teachers and associated whole arrangements with key private sector

Cognition Education Trust's equity has varied over the years but in

in New Zealand and, like Education's work has to make the former linked to credit towards a postgraduate certificate qualification at Global, based on the work of educational thought and that, consequently day work. For the period 2010

Trust makes its equity in perpetuity and averaging $24.6 million each year. In the same period, Group equity increased from

āori and Pasifika Education Initiative

established projects from its networks, and in 2015 selected its final $\bar{a}$

by former mayor Sir Barry Curtis as the City of Manukau Education Trust in 1999 to act as an information and advocacy hub and work with local stakeholders to advance ed city' mayor Len Brown as Community Education Trust Auckland. COMET is both a appoints the trustees and contracts with the Trust for some of its work.

. Equity has remained

Statement of Intent summarises the scope of its work as advocacy (reports and data, (provide expertise, lead/form coalitions and networks, forums). Its priority areas include education and skills; language, literacy and numeracy; facilitating skills and

ā

ā

ā

'backbone suppo

Auckland, cross sector Learning Auckland 'collective a pilot head lice programme in partnership with Hawke's Ba

In 2014, Kidscan acknowledged over surplus and nil equity, and employed 7FTE staff. In 2015, its income was $12.5

0.86 million and its equity $4 kind gifts and donated goods profit motivations. Some work largely in the managed state schooling marketplace

$\bar{u}$

making

deciding policy settings raises fundamental questions about public versus private as cases in this report, the amount and quality of information on their perso private sector networking or qualificatio

It is likely that the entry of private sector actors who bring a variety of financial, knowledge, cultural and social capital reso asserted to be the case with organisations like Foundation North, COMET and state system as a whole; (ii) increase the community brokerage role played by local between the home and school, and between the school and workplace; and (iii) to

It may possibly be more difficult to assert that organisations like Pearson, profit, take more money out

This report has provided a preliminary sketch map to identify some of the schooling today. It raises important questions about the potential benefits and quality state schooling experience that is free at the point of use.

Introduction

key aspects education policy making in Aotearoa New

making

ow it works, we need to look at several contexts of education policy making: the context of influence, the context of over the last decade or so has markedly these changes also markedly affec relatively opaque. Moreover, the entry of private sector actors hooling: What kind of market

oriented education systems to those based on network looks generally and specifically at the new education policy networks that have arisen ken in the six case

Context

networks like the Right to Ed lobal South, and seek to the effects and consequences of

Journal of Education Policy

Educational

Policy: An Interdisciplinary Journal of Policy and Practice nations they make, while organi eputational and market advantages to be gained profit motive. Reasonable quest

Transparency, understanding and debate like or like opaque

no longer useful to think of the private sector various kinds of publicly registered charitable trusts, their global linkages or networks

To make a pment as well. Where this takes place making takes place

networks of

questions need to be asked about how, and by whom, public education policy decisions are framed and taken on all our behalf.

Blurring public and private in state schooling t objectives. In order to make array of planning, monitoring and reporting requirements were introduced for tate has begun to 'export' this work of policy private sector policy actors both work alongside and compete against each other ‘Modernising’ state schooling nd classic market system marketplace of early childhood,

	Competitive	Cooperative
Independent	Classic market	Network structure Hierarchical

Speak

look at where existing services could be improved, and where bigger breakthroughs. To help with this, the government is looking at greater involvement

Consequently, t

, it makes sense that the organi operative networks at work alongside classic market and bureaucratic forms.

Modernisation and privatisation in action

Parekura Horomia signed a Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu

ā

Auckland University from the early 2000s, fun development support and workshops

Education issued a request for proposals (RFP) via the Government ernational version of the tool to market overseas.

by Māori iwi, ū and by Pasifika religious

Auckland schools, and in 2010 became a MoE

. In 2011, the Manaiakalani Education stakeholders the Tamaki community.

North) and Spark Foundation in 2012.

Manaiakalani Outreach

In response to the government decision to make the formerly bulk

Te Toi Tupu Leading Learning Network was formed as a joint

Waikato, and Waikato requirement for niversities of Auckland, Canterbury, Otago and Waikato, and Te Tapuae o Rehua consortium (Te Rūnanga o Ngāi Tahu, Christchurch

New Zealand Te Māngai Whakangungu Kaiako o Aotearoa to set ethical and quality stan

Ako Mātātupu

making foundations, in New York Auckland operates as a partnership between the University of Auckland, the New York
global peak body for re Aotearoa Foundation, ASB Bank, Chapman Tripp, in New York;

Zealand kn

Foundation donated $US379,872 to Friends of the University of Auckland, New York; $US47,250 to Mike Cormack Foundation (University of Auckland Rugby Club); $US128,138 to Asia New more widely known private also registered as a charity in New York.

grantmaking is toward 'K making approach to measurably affect per week devoted to the position'. Among the diverse multi value $US107,816,866) were a considerable number linked to the promotion of charter schools undertaken in 2015 for PSKH to open in 2017 Subsequent

Māori

of Māori, Pasifika, Christian and Steiner education values.

Hawkins Group, ASC Architects, Perumal Pedavoli

(PIP Fund, Hawkins Group, ASC Architects, Programmed Facility of the KickStart Breakfast in milk) which taking place on a number

networks of

āori and Pasifik

(e.g. Ka Hikitea, Pasifika Education Plan) to address inequalities of educational achievement prising, network and clan

(e.g. iwi, incorporated rūnanga and UMAs) in education networks, they become more network and clan to reduce educational inequalities, rather than

Why is this research important?

Other than anecdote and popular media reports of isolated cases, little is known a 'network governanc broadening the range of public policy actors through such networks potentiall policy governance networks ill likely be diminishing public in order to be able both to work effectively and pragmatically question

this purpose) and work outside established consequence of which is argued to be that by extension, the provision by government of equivalent financial ations and networks ch philanthropic and commercial networks are global, very diffuse, linked to right wing research units and policy think tanks, and secretive compete successfully in a managed market o

For example: Government proposes more funding to private schools, for equity's sake

equity's sake

nz/speech/keynote

networks.

between public and private sectors; and (ii) more frequent public sector strategic networking and tactical

ā

positioning themselves to take

ā

network governance modality

, cliques, cabals,

have to work

influence by making productive social

social network

but today social networking strategies are pivotal to maintaining sufficient outside stakeholder making structures

Educational Management Organisations

The key policy characteristics of the New Zealand PPP model include:

- the specification of outcomes required to be delivered to the public (the service
-
-
- the efficient allocation of risk to the party best able to manage that risk
-
- by the private sector partner) to provide meaningful risk transfer and management, procurement for all significant infrastructure investments has subsequently been delivery of required greater opportunity for innovation and risk transfer' (p. 5).
-

Consequently,

<http://news.bbc.co.uk/2/hi/uk/1518523.stm>

<http://www.brookings.edu/~media/rese>

Framework was adopted in 2008: Public Private Partnerships framework

(bricks and mortar)

are now able to take

(e.g. Chapman & Salokangas 2012

The Edison schools: Corporate schooling and the assault on public education
New York: Routledge.

Education Not for Sale, A TUC Campaign Report
https://www.tuc.org.uk/sites/default/files/Education_Not_For_Sale.pdf willingness to pay for curriculum equipment and ex benchmark

New Zealand ranks fifth ranks highest (equal with Chile) for private spending on primary to non items such as textbooks, private tutoring and living inequalities of educational outcome within and between education systems.

NumberWorks'nWords, MathZwize, InspirationEducation

networking
Te Pūtea Whakatupu Trust and the Te Whānau o Waipareira

Auckland franchise

For-profit

making
making the quality of life in giving back through corporate their social networks

Westpac provided loans to the consortium and equity funding was

ā

Hawkins; designer: ASC and PPA architects; facilities management: Programmed Facility

Westpac to provide loans, a Morrison & Co managed fund the equity, for NZ's first public

equity

(and subsequently, early childhood education)

(Learning and Change Networks)

‘author, speaker and educational consultant’. The website st Motion Leadership’, which is a reference to Fullan’s 2010 book, *Motion Learning:
The Skinny on Becoming Change Savvy* with the School Improvement Network,

(G3-4 ((l-3.81ko(i(o8lao)73l-3.81k pTJ 7-a(aT9(r)(o41t6.19o30e)1 1ir)(o22)3-16 7-4((o22i(eJ68kC ET /Arti/Link 4 through Corwin. A second book in the series, Motion Leadership in Action: More Skinny on Becoming Change Savvy describes through its trademark as a ‘global partnership’ and creativity, communication, citizenship, critical thinking, character minimum required size for r in New Zealand. Participating schools are required to commit

Visible Learning for Literacy Grades K-12

Curriculum are: thinking, relating to others, using language, symbols and texts, managing self, ‘where required’.

CORE’s Kahukura

Not-for-profit n kind goods, time or (or taken on by local equivalent) knowledge from also acquire and equi

measured in the form of social capital returns. This is the approach taken object of being largely an information network for the Manukau City community.

our work'

Auckland to reflect the establishment of the 'super city' Auckland Council comparison if only to show how charities can develop in quite different ways at qui

COMET reported total equity of $389,000; Kidscan $106,807. In 2014, COMET reported total equity of $328,509; Kidscan $3,184,131.

Philanthropy

Stokes & Dixon 2015, p. ii)

Ngā Rātonga Kaupapa Atawhai at the peak body, Philanthropy

Tōpūtanga Tuku Aroha o Aotearoa

University of Auckland Business School, 'grantmaker

Philanthropy Summit 2015: The Power of Strategic Giving

Philanthropy Summit 2015: Understanding the 21st Century Donor. The main Summit keynote speaker was 'New York entrepreneur and impact investor Justin Rockefeller'.

The Summit will focus on three key issues:

- income and inequality
-
-

It will look at how strategic giving and wise investment in these three areas is making a unique feature of the Summit is the inclusion of collaboration

These sessions are for like opportunities to find opportunities to work together in the three key issue areas and to

Rockefeller's Summit bio states: Justin Rockefeller is a New York City that provides investment professionals with the tools required to manage complex global and the Investment Committee of Rock networks that are developing to reali relationship that is emerging between financial and social networks

Regulation

p. 1), 'can still qualify for registration under the Charities Act charitable "ancillary" purposes that are undertaken to further its

and the list of speakers at the 2015 Summit:

<https://www.eiseverywhere.com/ehome/philanthropysummit2015/speakersday2/>

...some for Reliefe of aged impotent and poore people, some for Maintenance of sick and Universities, some for Repaire of Bridges Portes Havens Causwaies Churches Seabankes Reliefe Stocke or Maintenance of Howses of Corre requires that charities must also meet a test of public benefit.

-
-

an inadequate basis as public or private benefits. This in turn raises the more important question, address this question one needs to establish the range of possible public and at its peak growth

total net equity of over $6 million.

public academics, those working in public schools (or their representatives) and often make much of the claim that they engage in export education; they and financial equity over time, while the individuals who work education charity workers are full educational knowledge, or intellectu because of the expertise they have themselves acquired in public service.

delivery of public schooling services facilitates the building of networks and work for the public sector. A and consequently

it may also be argued that much of the kn the public sector is required to report, registered charities provide very little required or equity (which may itself be a strategic charitable decision

Giving

New Zealand ranks 3

he Index is based on market

. For donating money, New Zealand ranked 6

Giving New Zealand 2014

Stokes & Dixon

, equivalent to kind bequests.

actual amount of donations across the population as a whole is likely to

The filing return template for New York registered charities provides an example of greater

Investing

makes grants totaling $10 knowledge capital and performance through research, teaching, leadership training, skills

networking:

lasting change through social enterprise. We seek execution ability kids educated, more than schools built.

regular, quantitative and qualitative reporting and complete frankness, openness and

The second paragraph in the quotation is crucial to understanding how collaborative private sector social networking and s and Community Education Trust Auckland (COMET) in concert with corporate he Auckland region appears to be particularly mobile his regard, with key individuals moving across numerous charitable, equity over a

equity

banker Credit Suisse First Boston, former senior executive at Fletcher Building ā āti Raukawa ki

Auckland Leading the = π am` quidinguarpquf u n quie ē ɳ | $a rustee of NZ Education and Scholarship Trust, John Drake

New Zealand and contributed $10 million to the University of Auckland Business

ū

ā

ā

Iwi Groupings	2001	2006	2013
Te Hiku
Hauraki
Ngāi Tahu Whānui
Ngāti Kahungunu
Ngāti Raukawa
Ngāti Tama
 Tūranganui a Kiwa
Waikato
Ngāti Toarangatira
Rangitāne
 Ngā Hotahota o te Whaitau
	604,110	643,977	668,724 2013 Census QuickStats about Māori from among young people; and seeking strategic partnerships with organi ākehā

ū

ā

ākehā

Changing how kids learn: The Mind Lab and the future of education in NZ

kids

Waikato Tainui launches education plan <http://www.waikatotainui.com/waikato> ā acquired the financial resources to

ū

Year of Legislation	Group	Amount $million Waikato/Tainui Raupatu Ngāi Tahu
	Ngāti Ruanui
	Ngāti Awa
	Ngāti Porou
	Ngāti Tūhoe
	Ngāti Toa Rangitira
	Raukawa

Educational charities in New Zealand

Education related', 378 (6.1%) 'family/whānau', 225 frequently reported main activities

Makes grants to ‘Makes grants/loans to individuals’

Approximately a quarter of all 17,201 charities are based in Auckland

‘Donations/koha

4%) ‘Bequests/donations/koha’, 308 (5%) ‘New Zealand analysis was undertaken of t frequency and variation of financial scale of operation of education charities, an analysis was undertaken of their analyses were undertaken qualify for registration where the trust is of a kind in relation to which an amount of income is analysis focused on the variables: TotalEquity, TotalAssets, TotalLiabilities, and TotalLiabilitiesandEquity. the sum of TotalEquity and Total Liabilities should be equal to TotalAssets. This equation seems not work for these variable TotalAssets and TotalLiabilitiesAndEquity indicates

Total Gross Income

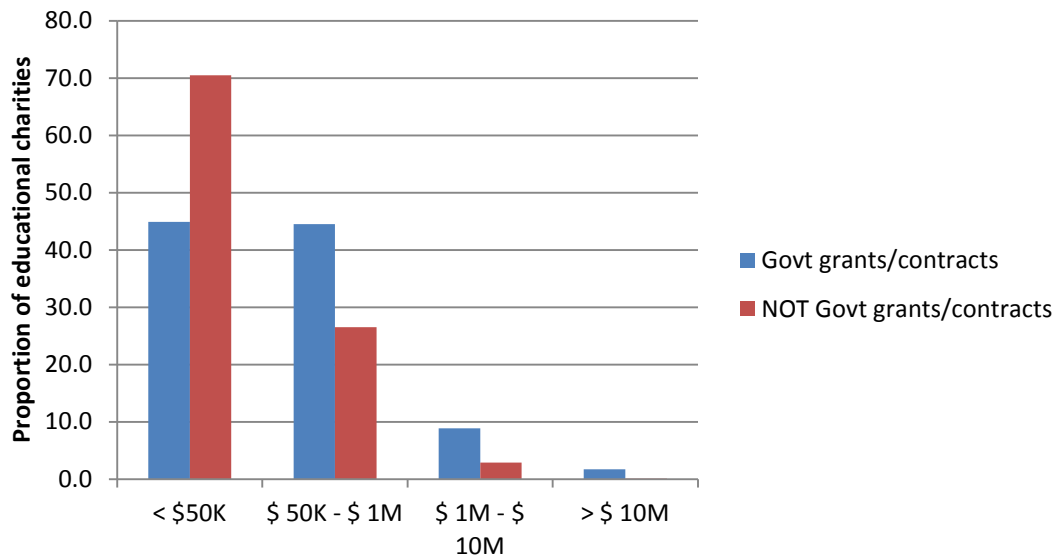

Total Gross Income

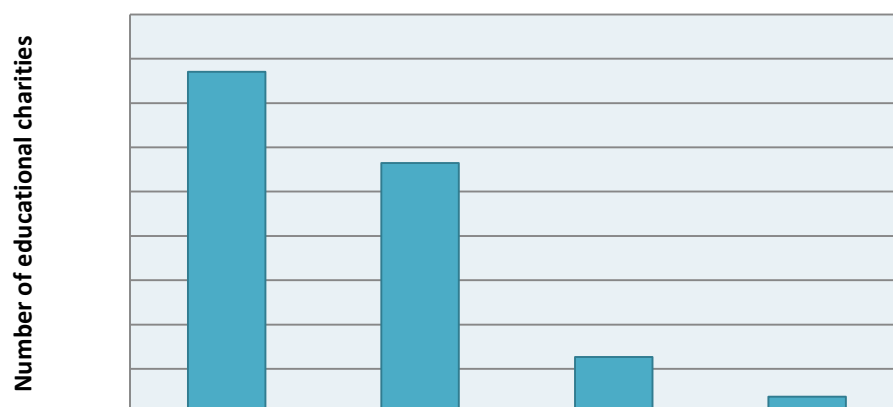

Total Expenditure

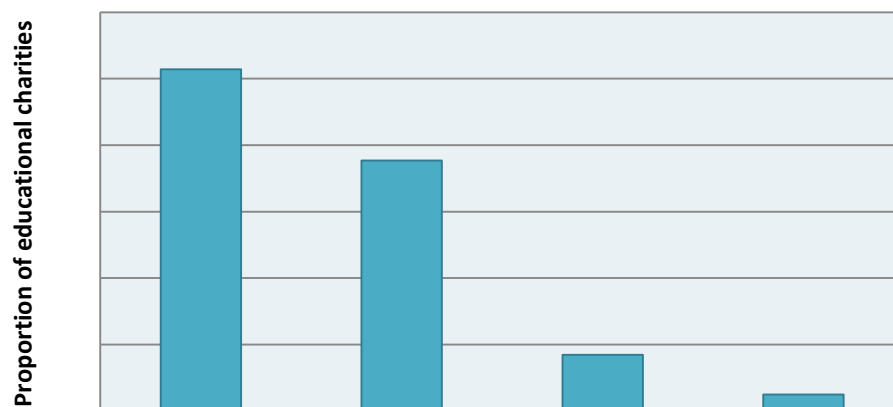

Total Expenditure

Total Assets

Total Assets

The analyses of Income and Expenditure were undertaken only with the 1,827

The Skills Organisation Incorporated

Service Skills Institute Incorporated

Waikato Anglican College Trust

King's School Auckland Cancer Society of New Zealand Auckland Division

Waikato Kindergarten Association

Policy networks

Policy networks come into being and flourish due to the interactions of actors who comprise them. Actors collaborate and network in order to be able to

Actors

to take up a position as Professor of Education and Head of School at the University of Auckland in 1998.
Auckland Uniservices

Auckland Uniservices
ark in April 2006 (later 'aban book Visible

Learning: A synthesis of over 800 meta-analyses relating to achievement

Education Ministry to 'privatise' school test syste development workshops across Australia in 2009.

as a trade mark in New Zealand and e mark consists of the wording “VISIBLE LEARNING PLUS” bold font raised like a superscript. Above the wording is a fanciful depiction of a human different workshops has developed a global network of private sector partners to deliver books in the Visible Learning series: Visible Learning for Teachers workshops are based) Visible Learning and the Science of How We Learn Visible Learning into Action: International Case Studies of Impact a book for the USA market Visible Learning for Literacy in Grades K-12

Justia Trade Marks <https://trademarks.justia.com/854/01/visible>

k 12/book249339

Year	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015

1 Hattie took up a position as professor and d

Working in also works at the Melbourne Graduate School of Education, and Access feedback from university ‘experts’ on teacher talk

The App works on trade mark in Australia in 2013 by Access Innovation Media Pty Ltd, and improvement into the US market’ original scholarly work in the university setting has since been packaged, branded and monetised in n taking up the take forward the outcomes of the Teacher Education Ministerial Advisory Group,

What Doesn’t Work in Education: The Politics of Distraction What Works Best in Education: The Politics of Collaborative Expertise. The acknowledgements in each give a indication of the expansion of Hattie’s policy networking in recent years: Michael ndation.org.uk/evaluation/projects/the education. The media release, which also quoted Professor John Hattie endorsing the need for the Department of Education, Employment and Workplace Relations.

Bentley (Education consultant, former Director of DEMOS think tank in London learning programme Networking Academies at Cisco)

Mark Griffiths

Rickards

Raising Student Achievement through Targeted Actions

attie's now global social networking

Networks

Networks are ubiquitous in social life and nothing new in education policy associations work to more strongly for the kinds of policy networks in New Zealand been undertaken within the central polity knowledge and influence that accrues via the network, evolve to networking or with whom, potential power of the network based on its and networks of which are actively networked

‘pro market’ think tank, the more closely resemble its Australian equivalent, the

The New Zealand Initiative occupies a unique spot in New Zealand debates. We are a backed research organi market perspective to policy debates without pushing spec

Roundtable and NZ Institute morph into new libertarian think tank ck

Gallagher, Alan Gibbs, Google, Halls, Heartland Bank, Imperial Tobacco, Kiwibank, Lion, Mainfreight, Microsoft, Mighty River Power, NZX, Portfolio

Myers, Spark Ne

Tappenden Holdings Limited, Tax Management NZ, University of Auckland, Vero, ations and networks that have emerged consequence of

Ako Mātātupu
network, ed as a boutique education programme. Consistent with equivalent term aim is to ‘build a network of educational inequality’. TFNZ’s in Auckland and Northland and paid at untrained teacher rates.

ākehā āori and 11% Pasifika. are The University of Auckland eadmaster Auckland

ā ancellor of University of Auckland,

Kaitautoko

Kaitautoko Rimu
Cognition Education, COMET Auckland, First Foundation, Fou

Kaitautoko Tōtara

Associate Director; Kaitlyn Irving, formerly a student support worker ā ahu ki Whangaroa)

University of Auckland Faculty of Education and Social Work, t

; and Mike

ā

as req

Like
does not accumulate equity. Its operating revenue is largely

Auckland and Ministry of Education: Student Achievement Component fu

Total Income	219,860	463,084	627,108	811,021
Total Expenses	218,115	458,383	620,646	803,148
Equity	1,745	6,446	12,908	20,782

irector and CEO of McCann Erickson Worldwide advertising agencies, owner of nrolment at Auckland Grammar and Books in Homes programme manager; orkforce hair of Wakatipu High School based equity hedge fund Alcor Investment nk in Hong Kong,

ormer Auckland Secondary head of Māori d to the Board are Professor Graeme Aitken, cur Education and Social Work, University of Auckland; Soana Pamaka, p Tamaki College,

officers are: Tony Falkenstein, rofessor at the University of Auckland; John Sproat; Pamaka.

obal network of sibling programmes (TFA), and individuals and organisations around which TFNZ's social network has been accumulated negligible equity. This does not suggest an organisation with social network

The TFA Board comprises Dr Frank Appel, CEO Deutsche Post DH

only Further Together: The Teach for All Global Conference, held in Auckland 15 international Teach for All community and helped push collective thinking about lobal network's work'.

international speakers and Skill

Tony Mackay, CEO Centre for

New Zealand speakers

ipal Sylvia Park Primary School

University of Auckland; Frances Valintine, Founder The Mindlab by Unitec; ounder Emerging Markets Private Equity

s Reckart,

Skills; Brett Wigdortz, co

CEO Visa Inc; Dr Rufus Black (emeritus director), m ity of Melbourne; Mark Fuller (emeritus d kind support across key areas'; and 30 Friends of registered as a charity in New York Ci $US19,892,000, expenses of $US22,960,049, a deficit of ($US3,067,959) and net equity of $US13,001,993. NYC charities are required to report some remuneration information for officers in Davis MP; Margaret Bendall, independent education adviser; Mark Powell

Ports of Auckland

aiakalani Education Trust)

University of Waikato; Sir John Hood, Presiden

Chancellor of Auckland and Oxford universities

ā

Cases

social network analysis using Gephi open source software works for Single quotation marks or indented text are used to identify direct quotations from all sources used.

Pearson

where its closest regional headquarters may be found, Pearson has competed energetically in recent years for a share of the national testing market (e.g.

and operated company'. Edify is a sales, marketing and publishing company

Pearson's mission is 'to help people make more of their lives through

Of this 'giving', 50% was from the Pearson Foundation, 29% was 'in kind our business impact. We also believe that our stakeholders expect and value our efforts to work in partnershi

'help make a difference' in ensuring access to and progress in

Pearson's website frequentl

, or key stages of

- 'Access to high quality primary, secondary & postsecondary education.
- education through enhanced literacy, numeracy, knowledge & skills.
-

Meeting the global demand for education will make us a more profitable company, profits we invest back into improving education for everyone

Growth Markets

Markets

language used is: 'to make ed

'take great educational products and services and apply them at scale', and 'work closely with educators and policy makers to improve learning through creating have around 100 other 'Partner' markets, where we do not have scale ourselves, approach taken in two

How the World's Best-performing School Systems Come out on Top

How the World's Most Improved School Systems Keep Getting Better

Deliverology 101: A Field Guide for Educational

Leaders

based on his work in the Prime Minister's Delivery Unit in the Blair that benchmarks global educatio international rankings such as PISA and TIMMS to produce 'the equivalent of a world's leading education thinkers on how to improve teaching, learning and the

'makes a further contribution to the knowledge base on which education leaders are drawing. It also makes possible extensive further research' and deeper knowledge base that will change the world'.

Michael Barber (Wikipedia entry)
https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Michael_Barber_\(educationist\)) <http://www.mckinsey.com/industries/public> ough its Research and Innovation Network, Pearson positions knowledge and knowledge tools:

-
-
-
-

akeholders, and by consulting with foundations

The Network comprises six research centres (Digital Data, Analytics tioners working

ly networks

(Always Learning; Pearson Labs, Research and Innovation Network; Learning

(Twitter; Facebook; Youtube; LinkedIn).

described as ‘making significant minority equity investments in for Punjabi government in Pakistan.

in response to the vital market opportunity and government need for low

Unmaking the market maker:
on.org/uncategorized/unmaking

market maker

Pearson's quest to cover the planet in company

Innovations (managed by Results for Development [R4D]), Omidyar Network, PALF works with entrepreneurs at varying stages in emerging markets. In years addressing their local communities. Through our programming we have worked public education provision as ‘part of the solution’ to educational inequity in of Pearson’s board and executive team social networks

Within the Pearson cluster the key

. Following Scott (2013, p. 176), for the sake of simplicity in this approach to mapping social networks in state schooling. Other approaches might reveal different

network

Sir Michael Barber, Elizabeth Corley and Joshua Lewis are key social network connections to the UK government and businesses 'orbiting' central to connects Pearson to Unilever, Blackstone, Qualcomm, Whirlpool Corporation, which in turn networks to the cluster of Moreno is a key connection to Xynteo and All American Speakers, which forms

Cognition Education

works w

Learning Network, P

(UK, Sweden, Denmark)

Tina Lucas

and work readiness programmes)

Andrew Short

speakers

was held in Washington DC. The k

Professor of Education, New York Cit Education, University of Auckland, Viviane Robinson book: Visible Learning for Literacy Grades K-12 _____

Chris Sullivan

Network, Middle East networks as a former b subseque subsequent subsequently

‘giving back for better futures’. The Mark of Cognition Education making available meeting rooms and facilities to education ity for schools across Auckland;

Auckland Primary Pri

in Auckland

speaker: John Hattie at the London Fes

velopment; Data Literacy; Gifted and Talented Education; Inquiry, Planning funded Te Kotahitanga project based at the University of Waikato

. The suite of workshops and associated multi workshops are offered across three series (Foundation, resources with an 'associated package of services to help you

Learning Network); Arts Online; and Health Promoting Schools (HPS) Workforce (funded by Ministry of Health).

in Auckland, Wellington, UAE and the UK. Clients include: Fonterra, McGraw Hill,

networks

Christopher Morton

Professor

Alister Jones

Chancellor, University of Waikato

Howard Fancy

Jo Clayton

works at Icehouse,

University of Auckland Business School (2012); Mike Taitoko ā

Stock Exchange and c investment bank, involved with University of Auckland Graduate School of

Carol Moffatt

Desmond Hammond

Ian Cordes

John Hattie

University of Auckland

John Langley

formerly Dean of Education at University of Auckland (until 2012); Keith

Goodall

Stewart Germann

Candice Craven

Director Auckland

Auckland Council Investments

Margaret Bendall

Auckland, f

Richard Jeffries

Whare Wānanga o Awanuiārangi in Whakatane and past Director and Chair of Te Putea Whakatupu Trust (TPWT)

Waikato

ā

Tim Livingston,

Sarah Martin

Stonefields School Auckland; Anna Rodda

Manager Auckland Philharmonic

the Auckland Writers and Readers Festival and NZ Sculpture OnShore;

Professor John Hattie

fessor at the University of Auckland.

Stewart Germann Keith Goodall Terry Bates

Margaret Bendall

Russell Bishop Hon Wyatt Creech

Nola

Hambleton Auckland Primary School

Janet Kelly

John

Langley; Mary Sinclair

granting history illustrates a range of support given to key projects and respected and the University of Auckland.

based knowledge'

nd, The University of Auckland F Manaiakalani

Auckland, to the appearances of Professor John Hattie and P aiakalani Education Trust, to two pilot programmes for delivery of the Storytime Foundation's Books for Babies

Cognition Education	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015
Income
Surplus/(Deficit)
Director Fees
Employees
Donation to Trust
Equity

Cognition Education Trust	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015
Income
Surplus/(Deficit)
Fees
Grants
Equity

Cognition Institute	2009	2010
Income
Surplus
Fees
Grants
Equity

and equity over a ties as ‘Makes grants to organi and Sponsors/undertakes research’, and therefore any assessment of Cognition’s period has seen income shrink by over equity has markedly in 2012, consequence

(also its increase in equity) Looking $28,688,033. Grants totalled $251,826. This equates to a

Education Group social network reveal

Sector Forum are located in the centre left of the network (orange). At the top left of the network is a cluster of corporations, businesses, professional ciations and linked events. These include the CFO Summit, Chartered Accountants Australia and NZ, Auckland Council Investments, NZ Institute of Accountants, Auckland Airport, TVNZ and In the network, except that there is less 'traffic' or the network. This grouping is organisations that network to shape). Thus the UOA appears to act as a key

network

tackling inequality in the educ . To the top right of the network i ringe of the network (PURPLE).

Gephi analyses of Cognition Group sub networks show

networked

network. Alister

Massey University, University of Waikato, Waiariki Institute of Technology (WIT) and Waikato

not only in the sub network of Cognition n the entire network itself. is networked networked directly to the Auckland City Council and the Regional Auckland region.

he sub network of Cognition Education Trust is

network)

position toward the core of the network.

Waikato University in CET and closest to the centre of the network. Hattie as the

networked

Auckland

s part of the quartet (with Hattie, Jefferies,

network

network connections are primarily to working together for both CET and Cognition Education. The location of bot

networks

Core Education

k with, and for their

Stephen Heppell	Derek Wenmouth	Nick Billowes	Professor Dr Vince Ham

he rules permitted the company to make ‘donations of capital and/or income to Education Limited to the Trust (the transfer of equity from CD

		Christopher Pickerill
Cameron Moore	Carol Moffatt	Anthony Hall
Cheryl Doig

-
-

is a public good'. The website also states that 'CORE's day to day work is Indeed CORE argues that building up a reserve (equit the company both to negotiate 'fluctuating financial times' and 'undertake a to CORE, any activity it undertakes

Consequently,

marketing to achieve tchurch, Wellington and Auckland

amme (funded by MoE); Auckland Intermediate Schools research

Connected Learning Advisory Te Ara Whitiki (MoE); National

Learning Planning Frameworks

Tupu); Early Childhood NZ Pou Manawa Akoranga (Early Childhood NZ);

EdTalks (CORE Education); Enabling e

Educational positioning System (CORE Education); Future Focused Inquiries

ā

Zealand School Trustee Association); Poipoia te Mokopuna: A whānau

years (Teaching and Learning Research Initiative); Virtual Learning Network

Development Network (MoE with Te Toi Tupu)

etwork, U

que IP, Weta Works

Leading Learning Network, C

etwork (Canada), CORE UK, the International Council on Education ok

day workshops

Wellington and Auckland) custom designed 'Transform' workshops that are facilitated s Network facilitators,

ā

Pasifika Education.

books, white and articles written by CORE staff; EDTalks video podcasts of interviews with 'leading educators, thinkers and classroom practitioners' and at conferences with 'some of the world's leading thinkers and teacher practitioners' conferences including Ulearn (3 days, 4 venues), breakfast seminars, and the

Martin Hadlee,

artner Morris Pattrick and Co

(subsequently KPMG)

Gillian Heald

and Research and Education Advanced Network. She

Frank Owen

research scientist and marketing professional

Ronnie Davey

Vince Ham

Chris Mene

Kaila Colbin

founder and director of New Zealand social media consultancy Missing Link.

York

Dr Bruce

Bryant

ecturer Manukau Institute of Technology with governance

ā

Hannah Buchanan (Taranaki, Te Ati ā

ā

Deb Gilbertson

global leadership skills in 82 countries, former board member of the c

Dr Sheelagh Matear

ā

atives, Excellence in Pasifika E consistently since 2010, with a marked increase in 2013 and subsequent year

CORE Education Trust	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015
Income
Surplus
Trustees' fees
Grants
Equity

CORE Education	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015
Income
Surplus
Directors' fees
Employees
SLT remuneration
Grants ⁷⁷
Donation to Trust
Equity

A unique is that the SLT or 'key

FTE staff numbers. The data show that the mean remuneration package per 2019, for the equivalent period (prior to May 2016) equates to a basic salary of total recruitment, performance, retention and superannuation remuneration package would likely be higher, as it would be for Principal of the equivalent total

This equates to a

Figure C3) displays two networks

The main network is at
network

The network has been mapped make it a closed network.

University of Canterbury) and then subsequent mapping finding Ronnie Davey (Cognition

Derek Wenmo
highest degrees in the network with 19.

point between the networks as Durie also connects to Hannah Buchanan through
Derek Wenmo

Both networks generally display a core

network

As previously, the graphic displays Derek in the network, with Kaila Colbin (2), Chris Mene (1) and Gillian Heald (12) next dominant. Unlike the persons graphic,

Kaila Colbin and Derek Wenmo constraints mean that this directional analysis has not been undertaken for Pearson and

A key tri connection in the middle of the graphic is Derek Nick Billowes (9 forms the very core of the network, and demonstrates the importance of the heart of the network. The largest

Derek and Nick Billowes.

Manukau

Schools Network (GCSN 94), Institute of Directors and Virtual Learning Network s are within the central core of the network.

clear association and interlinking of the University with

Foundation North

or services for community or social benefit and where any equity has been financial return to equit

Prior to 2006, the Trust had been known

While we will still fund major projects, we want to make sure our grants work for t decile schools, and look for partners who the Auckland Savings Bank was sold to the Commonwealth Bank of Australia and its as were made to support a whole range of great things happening across the Auckland and

<https://do6qmrbufqcd2.cloudfront.net/1003/15> annual grants of between $1,000 and $100,000 to ‘hundreds of Auckland

‘substantial grants ... to key commu

ā

‘Funding Framework’

taken on making which uses venture capital as its model to is focused on social entrepreneurs tackling some of the most challenging issues in the region. This is work that is a Foundation North ‘moving towards being more of a strategic grant maker’:

working in partnership with grantees and other funders ts of our work we aim to maximise of Auckland and Northland by working more strategically and collaboratively within a Trustee Banks Restructuring Act 1988, since replaced by the Community Trusts

kland, Mā

āori and Pasifika Education Initiative

The Trust began by forming Māori and Pasifika reference groups, made up of to the community and asked for ideas and proposals. From the short working in par problem. Failing to do so could condemn future generations of Māori and Pasifika communities to an unskilled underclass, blight economic progress, hinder attempts to Rise Up Trust Manukau, Manurewa, Sylvia Park School Mt Wellington, The Unitec Graduate Diploma in

Toku Reo Tupuna Trust Manukau, and C second phase of project funding resulted in the addition of Manaiakalani

ASB: Māori and Pasifika Education Initiative

ā

Career Academy, to work towards ‘accreditation as New Zealand’s first Pacific Trades Private roject (University of Auckland), High Tech Youth

ā

ā

Urutapu Tamāhine Programme; and in 2016, the completion of the programme for Māori and Pacific youth. It is not clear that this has occurred. However, it is clear that

ā
work/māori

We are very pleased to announce the completion of the Māori and Pacific Education Initiatives,

māori

Kua Ea Te Whakangao: Māori and Pacific Education Initiative Value for investment evaluation <https://do6qmrbufqcd2.cloudfront.net/1003/fn> extension of the Manaiakalani model nation king on new projects and established ent. Letting down a large number of applicant groups created disquiet among networks to target applications from known community projects. Generally, the phase two looking to projects was probably questionable. The projects were being funded to scale unknown

network

to source known projects entity like Foundation North requires the appointment of quasi trustees with particular skill sets, experiences and the social networks that these question about the extent to which

Jennifer Gill

Liam Sheridan

Auckland, and roles with Auckland and Manuka

Chloe Harwood

Raewynne Jacobs

Anna Palmer

ervices manager, 'before joining the Foundation, Anna worked in

Dr Alison Taylor

year term by the Minister of Finance'. Members are 'required to attend at Trustees are collectively required to have skills or experience in institutional making, governance, community and voluntary sector involvement, strategic thinking, leadership skills and legal expertis

Ken Whitney

experienced in 'property and trust work, including trusteeship of a number of

Lyn Lim

tion, AUT University, Auckland R

Board, Mykris Limited, c

Bank External A

Auckland District L

Alistair Bell

of Ruskin Group

risk youth mentor with Project K; Mark Brickell

Swanson Residents and Ratepayers Association in West Auckland, Massey Pony

Murray Broadbelt

Precious Clark

ā

ā

ā

ā

Orakei Whai Rawa Ltd, b

Auckland Museum Taumata

ā

ā

Auckland's Future Future Leaders Programme, former employee of Ministry of

ā

ā Vipan Garg

member Super Liquor Holdings Limited; Bob Leveloff

Ian McDougall

Waikato Regional pest man

onvenor for management of Punga Punga wetland Tuakau; former So Auckland Vegetable Growers president and c r of Pukekohe

Toni Millar

rustee Auckland Arts F

Trust, Great Kiwi Anzac Day Breakfast, kland City c

Committee Auckland Council, Chair Auckland City C

oard member Auckland Art Gallery and Friends of Auckland Art Gallery, ember of Auckland East Arts Council,

Auckland Agricul

Moe Milne ā ā

ā

anager and worker with Health and Disability

ā

John Slater

resident Auckland Citizens

chairman Newmarket

Kim Wright

treasurer Cook Islands Health Network

member of Pasifika Medical Association, Intern

Pacific health care, workforce development and research in child health Auva'a Unasa Enoso Auva'a

Foundation North Group (000)	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015
Income
Suppliers, trustees, & staff Fund management & advisory fees Surplus
Grants
Equity

Foundation North Grants Ltd	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015
Income
Surplus
Grants
Equity

Centre for Social Impact NZ Ltd	2014	2015
Income
Surplus
Equity

The Group equity has as a consequence increased from just over $1 billion in 2010 to $1.2 billion in 2015. The grant making entity within the group has increased the total amount of t networking possibilities.

and within this cluster are three key philanthropic organisations. These are members, 8 are networked to Philanthropy NZ, 5 to Tindall Foundation and 2 to g networking with Philanthropy NZ demonstrates ank Inflation Calculator, $1billion in 2010 would be equivalent to However, the marked variations in Group

Sport NZ is also closely networked within this cluster due to Raewynne Jacob's

Lim's networking with points network with the chair ation networking (Appendix C, table from the previous network graphic demonstrates a significant increase in network capacity when it comes to organisations, networking to 31 points on the g and Alison Taylor not only positionally in the network, but also networking shows the importance of their relationship within Foundation North as an organisation. Jennifer Gill as the CEO works closely with Alison Taylor who

Group. Both Jennifer Gill and Alison Taylor are networked to a range of the network in the organisations graphic as tr

orking strength of the Trust

Alastair Bell (10) and Mark Brickell (11) approach Moi Be graphic. Joint networking rth is strongly networked generally lie in the cluster to the right of the core of the network. Of the 14 most

North's objectives of consultancy and advisory work to enhance social

Community Education Trust Auckland (COMET)

City of Education Manukau Trust

Sir

Barry Curtis, Mayor of Manukau City as Settlor and ten Trustees, including

Colleen Brown

Fa'afua Leavasa-Tautolo

Stuart Middleton

Brown and Middleton were both subsequently for the $200,000 invested in the City of Manukau n 2002 and 2004 there was an equivalent injection in as City of Manukau Education Trust

COMET was established when Manukau City

ed that the only track to had been in the role for nearly 12 years. The report acknowledged ding: Manukau Institute of

(MIT), Auckland City Council, Manukau City Council, Todd

for the Manukau Community'. Specifically:

To identify education needs in the Manukau Community and communicate those needs to the relevant Education Stakeholders.

To develop strategies in consultation with Education stakeholders, to achieve the that make up the Manukau Community.

To act as an advocate for the Manukau Community in relation to all matters concerning education in Manukau City.

community and provide that information to the relevant Education Stakeholders.

To take any other action the Trustees consider appropriate to facilitate the
to the Manukau re required to live or work in Manukau City or be strongly associated with the Manukau Community, be 'knowledgeable and/or concerned about the provision of education to the Manukau community', 'have mana and standing the Manukau Community'; and 'reflect the diversity of the Manukau Community'.

linking schools and business to improve the transition of students into the workforce; improving d numeracy skills in the community; supporting early childhood services; enhancing lifelong learning opportunities; and advocating for quality education delivery and community initiatives such as homework centres'.

Stuart Middleton

Graeme McLennan

John Heyes

xecutive member of Auck

Toleafoa Sina

Aiolupotea-

Jo Howse

Allen Chang

rustee of Auckland Regional

Moana Whaanga

āti Pīkiao), Kaitautoko (part

Alison Sutton

Suzanne Thom ordinator Manukau Family Literacy Programme,

Aaron Shackell-Smith

Ofa Nai-Saulala

University of Auckland; Linda Hu

Glenda Plaisted

Laeli Lima

work links forum (May anukau Literacy Summit (September 2000)

anukau Literacy Summit (September 2001),

(October 2001), Youth mentoring pilot begins in four Auckland Schools bruary 2002), Stocktake report Business and Schools in Manukau

Youth

Mentoring: an Advice Manual for Manukau & Beyond

Manukau family Literacy Programme begins (Bairds Otara site) (March 2003),

Support for Manukau school work programme

The principal would like to see you!

begins (October 2003), Manukau Youth Transitions Service pilot begins (January

Analysis of School Income for Manukau Schools

Use of Information & Communication Technologies in Early Childhood Education Centres in Manukau City

Manukau Future Skills Action Plan; The Way Forward

A Tapestry of Understanding Intergenerational Family Learning in Practice Partnership with IBM on Pasifika SmartCentres

First Manukau

Stocktake report (August 2007), Manukau Early

Manukau trust named education trust of the year in Manukau schools set to rise

“Dark secret” of family violence

Government axes Manukau literacy

New education strategy for Manukau

Manukau

students show business skills

Driving relationships between truckies, teachers

Manukau Shows Leadership in Early Education

<http://www.scoop.co.nz/stories/AK0803/S00267/manukau>

The City of Manukau Education Trust was d request Auckland. The current COMET Auckland website states that it was launched in July 2012 by Mayor Len Brown. 'Our role is to support education and skills ckland, contributing to the relevant soci Auckland Plan'. COMET Auckland introduces itself as Te Hononga Akoranga The COMET Auckland is here to create spaces for people to connect in order to advance education and skills for Auckland. We do this by listening, sharing learning, coordinating, based decision making process.

As a legacy, COMET Auckland also plays an important role as intermediary, adv skills and training providers in Auckland.

COMET Auckland that it provides 'high quality and effective

, and long term income to equity

COMET	2008	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015
Income
Surplus
Wages
Employees
Equity

http://www.cometauckland.org.nz/webfiles/CometNZ/webpages/images/43744/Image_Youth

<http://www.cometauckland.org.nz/webfiles/CometNZ/webpages/images/4>

COMET Auckland

es its work and networks, forums). Baseline funding is provided by Auckland Council and COMET Auckland seeks 'funding from government, industry and COMET Auckland's 2015 priority areas within the Auckland Plan include: Champion education and skills, Improve literacy, language and numeracy, Facilitate skills and outcomes for āori, Facilitate skills outcomes for Pacific Peoples, Support sustainable

ā

ā

partnership, Learning Auckland, to drive systems change to improve cradle to career learning across the city'; and that 'The Learning Auckland Leadership

COMET Auckland's objectives are to 'provide backbone support' for the programme and to 'establish and coordinate Learning Auckland action groups'.

Learning COMET Auckland; Angus Fletcher, Chairperson The Fletcher Trust; Brian Putt, Director

Claire Gomas, Manager Skills and Employment Auckland Tourism, Events and Economic

Principal Willowbank School and head of Auckland Primary Principals' Association; Graeme Aitken, Dean Faculty of Education University of Auckland; Jenny Bygrave, Head of Strategic

University of Auckland; Kataraina Maki, General Manager Social and Community Policy Auckland Council; Linda Aumua, Director Pasifika Unitec; Lynda Stuart, Principal May Road School; Michael

Williams, Principal Pakuranga College and head of Secondary Schools Principals' Association of

Manukau Institute of Technology; Susan Morton, Director Growing Up in NZ study, University of Auckland; Susan Warren, Chief Executive COMET Auckland; Therese Ireland

Chancellor Equity,
University of Auckland.

Under the Skills heading, COMET seeks 'leveraged external f passport for use in Auckland' [a site based work ā ā

āmaki Makaurau heading, COMET Auckland coordinates the Tāmaki Makaurau

ā

education in Auckland'.

'monitoring the quality of the delivery of Whānau Ara Mua, the family learning qualification that COMET owns', to chair the Auckland Financial literacy Providers and Practitioners Network, with seek 'leveraged external funding' in order to project coordination of the Tamaki and Randwick Park family financial

The current COMET Auckland

Susan Warren

ly Learning at COMET Auckland,

Pasifika Schooling Improvement national project

Shirley Johnson anager Auckland Skills worker Alison Sutton, Strategic Analyst, author of various Auckland education reports, former member of development team for Te Whānau Ara Mua family

Hauāuru Eugene Rawiri (Ngāti Paoa, Ngāti

COMET Auckland's 2014 2015 Annual report acknowledges its Youth Employability Passport (YEP) scheme 'partners' as: Auckland Council, ATEED, Ca

Association Trust, Tindall Foundation, Work and Income, Workchoice Trust, Lottery Grants

<http://www.cometauckland.org.nz/wawcs0160400/idDetails=173/STEM.>

Whanaunga), Project Manager Māori Auckland Council te reo and tikanga adviser, Ngāti Paoa tribal negotiator, Education University of Auckland and Te Wā ga o Raukaw Linda Hu Danielle Meredith Dr Sarah

Morgan

Platform (PSP): South Auckland Pilot, f uckland; and Te Aroha Kanawa, ā reasurer for Te Tokanganui A Noho worked for Waikato Universit ā

The current COMET Auckland Trustees are: Richard Hall

Brian Putt

hair of the Birkdale Beachhaven Community Project and inaugural convenor of the Kaipatiki Public Arts Trust,

Julie

Dent

Board of Trustees member of a West Auckland Auckland Chapter of OMEP Sarah MacCormick, Auckland Council Youth Advisory Panel Morgan

Borthwick

he Orakei Local Board

Jannitta (sic) Pilisi

on Commission Pasifika Working G Andrew Abernethy, Hoana Pearson
resident of Aka Tamaki Auckland Māori Principals ordinator and Auckland Regional facilitator of the Māori Ginnie Denny ko books rustee of New Zealand Equine Education Trust, former

2015 COMET Auckland

Auckland in 2015 employed 7 full es expenditure was $467,840. This equates to a mean salary of $66,834 time, working a total of 344 average paid hours per week. This equates to 9.17 FTE staff. The cost of salaries and wages was $690,000, which equates to a mean annual salary of

Mentoring Network (35), Tertiary Education Commission (29) and the UOA organisation which promotes enhanced education by networking education

ilisi, show the importance of the Auckland Council to the

These three points of Auckland Council (34, 44) and PPAP (23) make up the largest representation of one organisation networked to COMET. For example, network connec links to organisations in the COMET network than any other COMET members. Warren has 44 degrees in the network and Pearson and Sutton stand next at 34

As with the COMET persons network, the organisations network is ational networking markedly the persons network . Warren's total networking additional 14 links compared to the persons network.

Pilisi in linking ethnic and cultural connections linked to range of organisations promoting Māori interests include Te Akatea (64), Mā Central School (63), while Pilisi is networked ā 4) also has key influence in promoting Mā in the COMET network as a Māori educator. This occurs through Ngāti ānanga O Raukawa (33), Kereru Park Campus (38) and Mā

Brian Putt (6) networks COMET to a range of Auckland based, and specifically the North Shore. These organisations are Birkdale Beach Haven Community Project Auckland North founded in 2005 by Julie Chapman in her Auckland garage’.

Kidscan

on how supporters can make a charitable donation of $15 a month to support a the kids’.

ackaging a epot as 'In Our Own Backyard Supporters'; Conferenz, Fujifilm, KPMG, s Hire, Skoolbo, Caharlies, DGE avel Brokers, The Coffee Club, B are Mike McRoberts, journalist Smith, actor; Mike Allsop, Bill Birnie,

irector of private equity firm Birnie Capital Limited irector of New Zealand Equestrian Sports and an of Post Office Bank; Julie Chapman Nigel Hampton QC,

Glenda Hughes lecturer in marketing, communication and cha worked with NZ Olympics Committee, former police force employee; and John Kensington, artner KPMG Auckland

Glenda Hughes John Kensington Julie Helson (Chapman) Kenneth Kampton William (Bill) Birnie
Amanda Hotchin Carl Sutherland Craig Forbes Hayley Throw Richard Shera

Kidscan	2007	2008	2009	2010	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015
Income
Surplus
Employees
Equity

Raincoats for Kids

Food for Kids

Shoes for Kids

Net Trust equity

kind gifts

Costs' ($2,140,927). The former comprises In kind gifts and donated goods used osts ($1,290,059), In kind gifts and donated goods used

Net equity working a total of 10 hours per week verage paid hours per week

1,465. This equates to approximately 39FTE staff working a 37.5 hour week.

This equates to a mean

Again, using the Reserve Bank online Inflation Cal equated to approximatel had 186 volunteers working a total of 930 hours per week. The cost of salaries and wages was $224,000, which equates to a mean annual salary of $37,333 per staff member. equivalent inflation adjusted salary would be $43,9 and finally direct networking outside the core of the network. The three most their sphere of networking. Bill Birnie specialises in the sectors of finance, in the core of the network

Chapman and John Kensington have the strongest links. Julie Chapman connects John Kensington's link is working with Massey on a note within the core of the network is the appearance of only one Trust, that is the TSB Community Trust. John Kensington is networked

as an organisation is networked to Figure C10) shows an increase in networking among Kidscan

The cluster of nodes in the centre of the network between Kidscan network. The network connections with these organisations vary from all members being networked to only two members. A group of these points within sist of MediaWorks, the NZ Herald and TVNZ. Of particular importance to Kidscan is the networking to Julie to actively utilise the media in the promotion of its work. Whether it is the mediums of articles in the NZ Herald, television segments on Breakfast or media .Of the eight media companies/businesses that are networked to Kidscan, is connected to in the network, the NZRU is the most dominant point, with all members associated. The All Blacks is an iconic high profile international rugby

Conclusion

emphasis on private sector networking and contracts and proportionately less appears to have unilaterally set practical limits or qualifications on this

It is likely that the entry of private sector knowledge, cultural and social capital resources to organisations like

community brokerage role played by local government between the school and workplace;

organisations like

profit, take more money out of the state

This report has provided a preliminary sketch map to identify some of the

ing today. It raises important questions about the potential benefits and children a high quality state schooling experience that is free at the point of use.

References

Education reform: A critical and post-structural approach.

Global education inc. New policy networks and the neo-liberal imaginary.

Networks, new governance and education.

Hidden privatisation in education.

Bogason, P., & Musso, J. (2006). The democratic prospects of network
The American Review of Public Administration, 36 Shadow education and its implications for planners

Chapman, C., & Salokangas, M. (2012). Independent state School Leadership & Management, 32 CAF World Giving Index 2015: A global view of giving trends

"Public benefit" test: Guidance for charities
A snapshot of New Zealand's charitable sector

Cox, M., Stokes, F. & Dixon, H. (2015, December). *Giving New Zealand:
Philanthropic funding 2014*. Auckland: BERL for Philanthropy New Zealand Tomorrow's Schools

Journal of Education Policy, 26

Journal of Educational Administration and History, 45

Journal of Education Policy, 31
Understanding social networks

Financing infrastructure projects: Public Private partnerships (PPPs).

Knoke, D. & Kuklinski, J. (1991). Network analysis: basic concepts.

Markets, hierarchies and networks: The coordination of social life Not for profit. The role of the private sector in England's schools

Charities Act 2005 No 39
The New Zealand PPP model and policy: Setting the scene

*Journal of
Education Policy, 26*

New Zealand ew Zealandh36 -1.76 Td(2a)-3(5(:i-2(i)4(o)10.1.rks)5(:-1

Social network analysis

Networks

Markets, hierarchies and networks: The coordination of social life

Appendix A: Methodology

network analysis. (Scott 2013, p. 2)

Aims

interrelationships, networks and coalitions; (iii) the degree to which they

Approach

ling sectors, and their networks of relationship, with each other and with literature on network ana key academics, former included Pearson at the specific request of the project funder

A major objective of this kind of research is to document what is going on workbook

researchers and professionals are making sense of these trends as they occur, in social network mapping and case analysis of selected private sector New Zealand

Methods

Database and internet searches

Education and Google Scholar databases were undertaken, mainly in late 2014

Educational management organisations and educational publishers were undertaken using terms (including *truncations) associated with Educational charities: The search terms used (including *truncations) were Pearson c focus requested by one of the project funders): The search

New Zealand education charities number of selected key organisations and personnel known to be active in public information on known education policy actors was necessary in regards to the Aotearoa Foundation, which is based in New York yet financially supports philanthropic peak body, Philanthropy New Zealand, and the policy 'think tank'

Snapshot analysis of the Government Electronic Tendering Service (GETS):

is required to adhere to the contracts of $100,000 or more, departments and agencies are required to advertise and open tender (Request For Quote, Registration of Interest, Request

Charities Services Register

A search of the Charities New Zealand database was undertaken using the related keywords.

The search terms were: educa*, scho*, kura, wananga, kohanga, kinder*, early, college, universit*, tertiary, stud*, train, learn, tuition, tutor, academ*, pupil, gradu*, teach*, appren*, bursar*, child*, young, youth, girl, boy, year (old), teen*, resear*, princi*, library*, kid*, presch*, mont*, play*. The variables MS, MB and frequency distribution of main sectors, beneficiaries and activities within overall

Main Sector	Main Beneficiary	Main Activity	Count	Percentage (/ 17201)
-------------	------------------	---------------	-------	-------------------------

lkeading1 OR 15

: 1 – Education/Training/Research; 15 – Other (Education related)

: 1 – Children/ Young people; 12 – Other Education related

: 1 – Provides services (e.g. care/counselling); 12 – Other Education related; 2 – Makes grants to organisations (including schools or other charities)

GrantspaidwithinNZ, Salariesandwages, Totalassets, Totalequity,

TotalLiabilitiesAndEquity. The database was analysed across a wide range of skills to underst frequencies and hence identified major clust which appears frequently in the database.

and civil society focus, no searches were undertaken of incorporated societies

Social network mapping and case analysis

A key objective of this based on cooperative network and clan open source network analysis and each of the case charities and for Pearson. Social networks may be analysed and have mapped all remain unknown provides a conceptual framework to frequency that help to explain the behaviours of the actors (Knoke & Kuklinski 1991, p.

Equally, we have

s particularly the case for Pearson and Cognition social networks as the Consequently, the analysis reported here

‘networking possibilities these are necessary to fully appreciate the social networking practices of an

the Pearson social network was erson to person search was undertaken social network. The link between them is depicted by a line contacts within the Pearson network. At title/position in the organisation. Where there was an equal purposive: Pearson was required by the Appendix B: Educational charities with annual income between $1 million and $10 million

Name of Charity	Income	Expenditure	Assets Victoria Link Limited
Sport Waikato Education Trust
Sport Waikato General Purposes Trust Victoria University Book Centre Limited Skills 4 Work Incorporated

Northern Auckland Kindergarten Association

Skills Active Aotearoa Limited

Taranaki Free Kindergarten Association

Auckland City Training School

University Book Shop (Otago) Limited

Sport Hawke's Bay

Early Education Waikato Limited

Workbase Education Trust

ū Waka Incorporated

Te Kura Toi Whakaari o Aotearoa: New Zealand

Auckland

Wellpark College of Natural Therapies Limited

Auckland Hospital Pre

Te Runaka o Awarua Charitable Trust Auckland Observatory and Planetarium Trust

Wairoa Waikaremoana Maori Trust Board Chancellors' Committee

Early Learning Counties Manukau Limited

Otaki and Porirua Trusts Board

Auckland Student Movement at Auckland

Hawkes Bay Agricultural and Pastoral Society

Te Rapunga o Poutama Work and Educational

Pukeatua Kohanga Reo Charitable Trust
Te Wananga Takiura o Nga Kura Kaupapa Maori o

Building Blocks Community Trust

High Tech Youth Network

Pukekohe Christian School

Appendix C: Case organisation social network Tables and Figures